"A Cause To Celebrate"

"Perhaps no single factor has improved the visibility, image and support of Florida Memorial College more than our campaign leadership. Organized two years ago, this group, led by General Chairman R. Ray Goode, president of the Babcock Company, embraced us openly, came into our family warmly, and endorsed our long-ranged planning admirably.

We asked them to join us, help us plan, and raise money. And they did. There is no way we can justly describe the magnitude of their confidence and support, nor our gratitude.

Mr. Goode has fostered an overwhelmingly successful campaign, by attracting the very important venturesome partnership of the community. To date, the campaign has received $3,648,081.00 in pledged support with $3,229,621.00 already in the kitty."

"... We are prayerfully confident that we will reach our goal. We are grateful for a community that has come to know us and to share its confidence by investing valuable dollars in our future. We believe there is nothing more important in improving our generation over another, than the job we do. Your gift to our campaign is a gift to the community we serve."

PRESIDENT WILLIE C. ROBINSON

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I am very pleased to congratulate you on the occasion of your graduation from Florida Memorial College. You are a special class: your success during these past four years has been paralleled by the successes of the College during the same time. Nineteen Eighty Three marks your personal commencement; it also marks the commencement of the institution through which you have achieved your higher education goals.

"Commencement" means beginning. It is a rite of passage, a time to begin again. We successfully complete one event in order to begin another. You have spent four important years of your life obtaining your bachelor's degree in order to begin a new venture: a career, additional education or new life roles. These four years may have been difficult; you may have encountered academic or financial or personal crises; but, you achieved. You realized your potential, and now you are prepared to create a new future for yourselves.

The class of 1983 is particularly important to me, because your difficulties and achievements of the past four years are reflected by the institution as a whole. Florida Memorial College has experienced its own rite of passage. It, too, has realized difficulties, has had to draw on its potential, and now is in an era of achievement. Even though one hundred and four years old, the College is "commencing", beginning again, just as you are. It is preparing to create a new future for itself, just as you are!

You can be proud of Florida Memorial College's commencement as you are of your own. The institutional goals we set, when you entered the College, have all been met and surpassed. As we commencement together in 1983, the College has successfully responded to all recommendations of accreditation committees. It has launched and completed ahead of time its $3.365 million-dollar campaign fund, the most important fund-raising attempt in its long history. Three new buildings have been added to the main campus during your life here: the new College dining facility, a beautiful modern dormitory, and the Dr. Susie C. Holley Religious Educational Center, which includes the first chapel built by the College since relocating in Miami.

You can also be proud of Florida Memorial College's commencement, as it has obtained a highly credentialed and gifted faculty: approximately 70% have doctoral degrees, surpassing our earlier goal of 65% to be achieved by the mid-1980's. The College has established an important Honors Program to meet the needs of its specially gifted students. It has expanded its curriculum broadly and has created satellite and other campuses for a variety of students in the South Florida region. It has strengthened its main library with the accumulation of important holdings. And, significantly, it has raised funds to support its endowment program, creating a financial base for its future.

Commencements, however, are never just individual accomplishments. Your successful commencement was supported by families, teachers and friends. The College's new beginnings in 1983 are also partly the result of others' efforts. Mr. R. Ray Goode has provided outstanding leadership as Chairman of the College's Executive Committee and of the funds campaign; alumni of Florida Memorial are showing new commitments to the College; Baptist churches, clergy and laity have made Donation Day the important yearly milestone in the life of the institution; and, the private sector in South Florida is supporting this College continuously. "Commencement" is only possible with the commitments of others. The College has helped you achieve your new rite of passage just as it has been aided by these important persons and groups to achieve its own rite of passage.

Again, congratulations to this special class on its graduation! As you and Florida Memorial College commence a new future, do not forget your past. Remember the institution that helped make your commencement possible and continue your commitment to it as it, too, creates a new future. Nineteen Eighty Three can be the year in which you and Florida Memorial College together begin a new beginning of achieving the goals of our historic educational heritage.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

THE PRESIDENT'S CABINET DIRECTS CHANGE

"Changing With The Times" Promotes
Academic Excellence.
"The Craftsman"

I have admired any skillful craftsman
Whose mind retains the fabric of a dream,
Dreamed in his youth, of labor's high perfection
From which some new accomplishment might gleam:

New use of tools which others long had handled,
Their steel blades glittering beneath his hands
That bridges and high climbing walls be safer,
Because one skilled in labor understands.

The vision of some possible invention
To ease men's aching muscles and tense nerves,
Regardless of the hours of endeavor
Through which a dedicated workman serves.
The seeking always for higher standard
Of the completed tasks throughout his days,
With ever for his aim, clean honest service . . .
Truly this man deserves our heartfelt praise.

MESSAGES FROM THE DEANS OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

My Creed

To live as gently as I can;
To be, no matter where, a man;
To take what comes of good or ill
And cling to faith and honor still;
To do my best, and let that stand
The record of my brain and hand;
And then, should failure come to me,
Still work and hope for victory.

To have no secret place wherein
I stoop unseen to shame or sin;
To be the same when I'm alone
As when my every deed is known;
To live undaunted, unafraid
Of any step that I have made;
To be without pretense of sham
Exactly what men think I am.

To leave some simple mark behind
To keep my having lived in mind;
If enmity to aught I show,
To be an honest, generous foe,
To play my little part, nor whine
That greater honors are not mine.
This, I believe, is all I need
For my philosophy and creed.

The Humanities Division offers curricular leading to the Bachelor of Arts in English and the Bachelor of Science in Religion. Additionally, courses are offered in Humanities, Art, Foreign Language, and Drama.

Dr. Alfred A. Pinkston, Professor of Music, Chairperson, and Associate Dean of Academic Affairs

Emerson said, "Hitch your wagon to a star." One can see in those six little words the summary of human achievement, and an everlasting inspiration to the future races of men. From Socrates to Edison, every forward step taken by mankind through revolving centuries, every advance by humanity towards the ultimate goal, has been led by some valiant dreamer whose eyes were fixed upon the dawn. Moses, with dying eyes, saw a star that blazed in the Promised Land; the radiance of an eternal star led Three Wise Men to the manger in Bethlehem; Columbus pinned his faith in the dawn of a new day; Kepler, announcing the laws of the unchanging spheres; Newton, watching the apple fall, each looked beyond, and into the future

It is your duty to use your talents. Remember, if you do not use, you will lose. It is reported of Charles Darwin that when he had finished his scientific work, he settled down to enjoy life. He thought that he would now enjoy poetry, music and art. Sad to say, he soon discovered that these things did not strike a response in his being. Later he said, "It is too late now because I have allowed these parts of my being to atrophy."

—Zollars.

Rev. George Ellis, Adjunct Professor of Religion.

Mr. Wayne Robinson, Adjunct Professor of Humanities and Music;
Director, Chapel Choir.

A RECIPE

I leave these words with you. It is only a young man's message to young men. The message is simple enough. There's nothing impossible about it to any young man, so long as he bears in mind the salient points: First—What success means; the successful doing, the doing well of whatever he does in whatever position he is. Second—The price of success; hard work, patience, and a few sacrifices.

Then for his keys—In his religious life: A firm, unwavering belief in God and in prayer, and a life consistent with that belief for himself and for others. In his social life: Moderation. In his marriage: Love. And in business: Thoroughness. Not thoroughness alone in large things or what is apparent to the eye; but thoroughness in all things; not slighting small things.

—Edward Bok

You Can Touch Stars

Stars have too long been symbols of the unattainable. They should not be so. For although our physical hands cannot reach them, we can touch them in other ways.

Let stars stand for those things which are ideal and radiant in life; If we seek sincerely and strive hard enough, it is not impossible to reach them, even though the goals seem distant at the onset.

And how often do we touch stars when we find them close by in the shining lives of great souls, in the sparkling universe of humanity around us!

ACHIEVEMENT

Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles which he has overcome while trying to succeed.

MYSELF

I have to live with myself and so,
I want to be fit for myself to know.
I don't want to stand with the setting sun,
And hate myself for the things I've done.
I don't want to keep on the closet shelf,
A lot of secrets about myself;
And fool myself as I come and go,
Into thinking that no one else will know
The kind of girl I really am;
I don't want to dress myself up in sham.
I want to be able as days go by
Always to look myself straight in the eye.
And here in the struggle for fame and pelf;
I want to be able to like myself.
I want to go with my head erect,
I want to deserve all men's respect.
I cannot hide myself from me,
I see what others may never see.
I know what others may never know and so,
Whatever happens I want to be
Self-respecting and conscience free.

Her finest moment, being crowned by President Robinson.

What better attire for an occasion as such! Aren't they lovely!

SOPHOMORE CLASS— STEPPING INTO TOMORROW PREPARED FOR CHANGE

THE CLASS OF 1985

To us, this place is a shrine of understanding

Sophomore Class Officers

Look to this day,
For it is life.

The very life of life.

In its brief course lie all

The realities and truths of existence;

The joy of growth;

The splendor of action;

The glory of power.

For yesterday is but a memory,

And tomorrow is only a vision.

But today well lived

Makes every yesterday a memory of happiness,

And every tomorrow, a vision of hope.

Look well, therefore, to this day!

You Can Touch Stars

Stars have too long been symbols of the unattainable. They should not be so. For although our physical hands cannot reach them, we can touch them in other ways.

Let stars stand for those things which are ideal and radiant in life; if we seek sincerely and strive hard enough, it is not impossible to reach them, even though the goals seem distant at the onset.

And how often do we touch stars when we find them close by in the shining lives of great souls, in the sparkling universe of humanity around us!

. . . Esther Baldwin York

Carlos Williams shares enthusiasm with Linda Brighthaupt, a senior, in the Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony of a new dormitory.

THE BUILDER

A traveler, going a lone highway,
Came at the evening, cold and gray,
To a chasm, vast and deep and wide,
Through which was flowing a sullen tide.
The weary traveler crossed in the twilight dim
That sullen stream had no fears for him;
But he turned, when he reached the other side,
And built a bridge to span the tide.

"My Friend," said a fellow pilgrim near,
"You are wasting strength in building here.
Your journey will end with the ending day;
You never again must pass this way.
You have crossed the chasm, deep and wide,
Why build you the bridge at the eventide?"

The builder lifted his weary head,
"Good friend, in the path I have come," he said.
"There followeth after me today
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This chasm that has been naught to me
To that innocent youth may a pitfall be.
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim
Good friend, I am building the bridge for him."

Alpha Angels Exemplify Qualities Of Finer Womanhood.

Alpha Delights

The Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated, Delta Psi Chapter, realize and acknowledge the admiration, devotion and commitment towards our organization of those individuals who for reasons of gender are unable to be included in our membership. Therefore, the fraternity established two auxiliaries to be comprised of young ladies commonly referred to as "Sweethearts." These individuals belong to the Alpha Angels Club and/or the Alpha Delight Club. Members of these clubs have exemplified qualities of finer womanhood and have exhibited through their actions a dedication, commitment and concern for the cause of Alphasdom. These ladies assist with the coordination and implementation of activities sponsored by Alpha Phi Alpha. They assist in such tasks required for the benefit and well being of Alpha Phi Alpha. Their efforts positively complement the gentlemanly qualities of the men of Alpha.

"Alpha Angels and Alpha Delights are the best or they would not be."

A MESSAGE FROM THE VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Mr. Dwayne Ruffin

My Fellow Comrades:

It has been an outstanding privilege to serve as vice president of the Student Government Association 1982-83 and to represent the Student Body to my fullest.

FLORIDA MEMORIAL COLLEGE'S BILINGUAL PROGRAM SOUTH CAMPUS

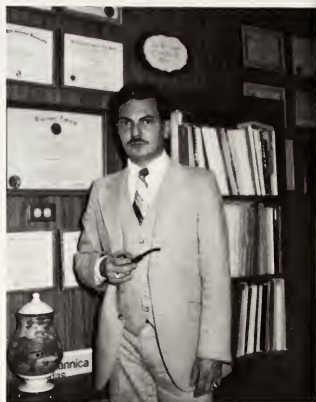

History of Bilingual Program At Florida Memorial College

Florida Memorial College identified the need to create a Bilingual Program in the early 1970's. The primary function of this program has been to improve the educational, social, and economic status of the Bilingual population in Dade and surrounding counties.

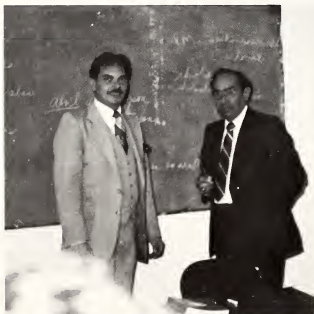

In 1980, Florida Memorial College increased its direct educational assistance to the various communities in Dade County to enhance transcultural communication, and to better identify the resource role of the Bilingual Program of Florida Memorial College to the community at large.

The primary roles of the Florida Memorial College's Special Academic Programs, the Bilingual Program in particular, are to create the educational opportunities and processes in the Hispanic community for the planning, organization, and coordination of institutional and community resources; to identify and solve problems of mutual concern, develop and implement viable educational plans, and to follow up the specific solutions; to identify transcultural educational and accultural related problems. The following municipalities have been selected by the Bilingual Program of Florida Memorial College as having viable support systems to attempt this ethnic-transcultural educational effort are:

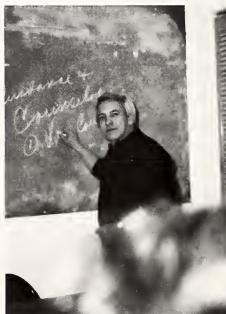

1. Miami
2. Hialeah
3. Opa-locka
4. Sweetwater
5. Homestead

In its brief course lie all the realities and truths of existence;
The joy of growth,

For yesterday is but a memory
And tomorrow is only a vision;
But today well lived makes every yesterday a memory of happiness,
And every tomorrow, a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore to this day!

HISTORY

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc., was organized on November 12, 1922, in Indianapolis by Mary Lou Gardner and six other school teachers: Dorothy Hanley Whiteside, Vivian White Marbury, Nannie Mae Cahn Johnson, Hattie Mae Dulin Redford, Bessie Rhodes Mactin, and Cubena McClure. To this end they assume the responsibility: (a) to provide an atmosphere in which friendship and social contacts may be developed, (b) to assist each member in developing social graces by emphasizing the value of poise and personal dignity, (c) to encourage and promote high scholastic attainment, (d) to develop leadership abilities and individual talents, and (e) to maintain interests and attitudes in harmony with modern thought and changing educational outlook.

For administrative purposes the chapters are divided into five regions according to their geographical locations. A Regional Syntax is in charge.

THE YELLOW ROSE OF ALPHA

We sowed a seed in nature's soil,
It died, it rooted, and blossomed fair,
Our God of Love freely shared,
His sunshine, rain, beauty and care.
Its fragrance sweet, its petals divine
Gave its beauty to the soul of man.
What flower is this, that brightens our day?
Tis the Yellow Rose of A Phi A
If you will bloom through His loving care,
Your wealth and love with your brothers share
You too, will find at the close of day,
That you are a Rose of A Phi A.

Miss Phyllis Ellis
Alpha Sweetheart

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity holds the distinction of being the first Black Fraternity organized in the United States. In 1906, on the campus of Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, amidst much racial discrimination, several Black young men met late into the nights deliberating their future. The gist of these meetings was to discover means of promoting the welfare of each other and inspiring each other to the pursuit of academic excellence and achievement.

Out of this meeting was to emerge Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. We still operate on the concepts of "Manly deeds, scholarship and love for all mankind" as was the ideals conceived by our seven founders.

Today, Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha cover virtually every area of the professional world and are found in nearly every major city, and on most college campuses. In addition to this, chapters are located in Jamaica, the Bahamas, England, Europe, the West Indies, Canada and Africa.

The Delta Psi Chapter, located on the campus of Florida Memorial College, was founded in 1954 by the then President of the College, Brother Royal Puryear. Aspiring members to our organization must be above average in scholastics and possess finer qualities of manhood and leadership abilities.

TO SIGMA

Thy scattered sons with lofty hopes and aims,
Achieving greatness which the world porclains,
Regarding life with tenderness sublime;
And with design which knows no race or clime;
Appeals to selfish man to serve and love
God's handiwork created from above.
Phi Beta Sigma stands this test of years
Supremely over blight and cringing fears.
With unflinching will that cannot fail
The sacred cause advances to prevail.
Give us the conscience staunch and spirit brave,
To master stormy sea and angry wave,
And as the curtain falls o'er this brief life,
We'll March triumphant from this den and strife.

The Brothers of Kappa Gamma proudly display Omega's Insignia.

Omegas are proud of Brother Audley Coakley, owner of the swanky Andre's Restaurant, the setting for the Neophytes festivities.

On November 17, 1911, at Howard University, Washington, D.C. the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity was founded by three men, Brothers Edgar A. Love, Oscar J. Cooper, and Frank Coleman, in company with Professor Ernest E. Just. These four men, having thoroughly gone over the situation, saw keenly the necessity of such a movement and decided to plant the first or "Mother" Chapter of a Greek Letter.

The principles upon which this fraternity is based are set forth in the four words—Manhood, Scholarship, Perseverance and Uplift. The fraternity aims to emphasize Christian Manhood and scholarship attainments.

There are two graduate and two undergraduate chapters in the Dade County area. The graduate chapters are Sigma Alpha and Pi Nu. The undergraduate chapters are Omicron Delta, located at the University of Miami, and Kappa Gamma located at Florida Memorial College.

Omega continues to bring the best men home.

Message from the Director of Alumni and Church Relations

This year we have been extremely blessed with the continued support we have received from alumni and our church constituency. I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the members of the 1983 Senior Class, and I look forward to working with you as new alumni. The events of this past year have become history. Although they may remain vivid to all of us who participated in the long sweep of history of Florida Memorial College, this year will probably be more significant than many of the other one hundred and four because of the tremendous strides we have made. Our names and our events will be a part of the life of this college. Our crisis, our choice, and changes in our lives will be important because other lives are affected through contact with ours. Each of us has affected the life of others, and all of us together have had our influence on Florida Memorial College and the future which lies ahead. May God bless each of you in the choices you have made this year and those you will make in the years ahead.

Sincerely yours,

Charles B. Dailey

DONATION DAY ACTIVITIES 1982

Donation Day at Florida Memorial College is an annual event sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of The Baptist General State Convention of Florida, Inc., under the direction of Mrs. Celestine Dixon, and The Progressive Missionary and Educational Convention of Florida, Inc., under the direction of Mrs. Amelia Houston.

Donation Day was first known as "Love Gift Day," which began when the Late Mrs. Holley, then wife of the president of Florida Memorial College, and a small group of women belonging to First Bethlehem and the First Central Association saw a need to aid the College. The women of the two associations developed and implemented the idea of soliciting specific items that were necessary for the operation of the College, in order that the monies available to the College could be used for operational needs.

Their efforts were so tremendously successful that they were able to share with needy families that lived in the immediate area of the College. This program grew with so much momentum that storing the foods donated to the College became a problem. The College's Board of Trustees and women's groups of both conventions decided that they would ask for donations of money rather than commodities. "Love Gift Day" thus became known as "Donation Day."

Dr. Willie C. Robinson, President of Florida Memorial College, brings greetings.

The Concert Chorale leads the audience in, "Lift Every Voice And Sing."

Judge Wilkie Ferguson, Chairman of the Trustee Board, Florida Memorial College, brings greetings.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The International Student Association

Florida Memorial College normally has a foreign student enrollment of approximately 100. Being that many of these students are from the various, more traditional societies, the International Student Association acts as a medium to unite these students. The International Student Association is composed of students from such places as the Bahamas, Barbados, England, Ethiopia, Haiti, Jamaica, Kenya, Liberia, Nigeria, Saudi Arabia, Sierra Leone, and Trinidad.

The International Student Association serves as a sympathetic ear and helps in meeting the problems that accompany a lifestyle far different from the one that students are accustomed to. It also allows students to express themselves and their cultures through various activities.

RECIPE FOR GREATNESS

To bear up under loss;
To fight the bitterness of defeat and the weakness of grief;
To be victor over anger;
To smile when tears are close;
To resist disease and evil men and base instincts;
To hate hate and to love love;
To go on when it would seem good to die;
To look up with unquenchable faith in something ever more about to be.

That is what any man can do, and be great.

We can make our lives sublime;
And departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sand of time.

Seeing, may take heart again.

Terry V. Williams, Editor

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS FROM THE EDITOR-CHIEF

It's all over now! It has been months since we started working on the twenty-ninth volume of the Arch, our Yearbook. It appeared that we would never get finished but through it all, it is finished.

As Editor-In-Chief of the Yearbook Staff, I say to you, my fellow colleagues of Florida Memorial College, the 80's is the time for changing things and meeting the challenge of the 80's will consist of achieving our goals successfully, facing problems with reality . . . not as jokes, and motivating others to make something of themselves.

Looking for a better way? Then CHANGE WITH THE TIMES to prepare yourselves for that STEP INTO TOMORROW by facing today's challenges and realities.

I take this method to express my deepest appreciation to the entire staff of the Yearbook Club: Tara Askew and Anita Dowdy, co-editors and photographers; Carla Lee and Yolanda McCoy, recording secretaries; Tracy Smith, business manager; Karen Turner, treasurer; Gino Joseph and Clarence Elridge for working through the Christmas holidays. Many students stepped right in and gave a helping hand. This list includes Sophia Lewis, Danielle Powell, Michelle Washington and Mickey Timmons. We are also very grateful to Miss Zelda Cook for her ideas and time contributed to the staff; Reverend Harrell, the school's photographer, Mrs. Patricia Warren for her inspiration and time; Dean A.C. Robinson for his interest and support; and many thanks to President Willie C. Robinson for giving us a chance to exercise our leadership abilities, personal ideas, and creative talents. Finally, I express my deepest appreciation to my pastor, Rev. Ben Carroll, and to my church, Mt. Calvary Baptist Church of Oakland, California, for persuading me to attend Florida Memorial College. Rev. Carroll has been and still is an inspiration to my ministry and my life. I would not be here had it not been for him. I shall forever love you and will demonstrate my gratitude to you by leading a productive life.

GOD BLESS ALL OF YOU.

Sincerely yours,

Terry V. Williams
